

MACHINE MUST BE OVERTHROWN.

The Plunderers and Bosses Must Be Defeated.

Every Loyal Citizen Should Help to Elect the Matchless Tickets Nominated by the Honest Voters of the State and County—Let Every Democrat and Every Independent Republican Do His Duty.

ROBERT E. CRESSWELL.

Next Tuesday the citizens of this commonwealth will be called upon to perform an important duty. An attorney general and county officials will be chosen, and it behooves every voter to make a wise choice when he selects the candidates for whom he shall cast his ballot. The shillbills in this campaign have been "Down With the Machine." That battle cry has rallied an invincible army of honest citizens beneath the banner borne aloft by the good government forces. All of our readers are sufficiently posted to know that there is a state machine, the former of which has been plundering

Democrats and independent Republicans for treasurer, is one of the foremost citizens of the county. He is progressive, popular and thoroughly reliable. Being an eminently successful business man, he will bring system into the treasurer's office. He is careful, conscientious and intelligent, and the funds of the taxpayers will be safe in his hands. Put a trusty man on guard in the treasurer's office by electing John T. Miller.

H. GRANT DIEHL.
H. Grant Diehl, the Democratic-Union nominee for register and recorder, first saw the light of day on a farm. He received a good education and taught school for several years, when he again engaged in farming. At present he is secretary of the Friends of the Cross Mutual Fire Insurance company and has held that position very acceptably for eight years. He is serving his third term as justice of the peace and ever since he cast his first vote has been either township clerk, or auditor. He shows that the people have confidence in his integrity and ability and that he is a worthy candidate for register and recorder. Be sure that he gets your vote.

JOSEPH F. BIDDLE.
It is important that the district attorney should be a vigorous, level-headed, courageous man and a skilful lawyer, and that is the reason the Democratic and Union parties selected Joseph F. Biddle as their candidate for that office. Mr. Biddle will make a model prosecuting officer and will please all persons, regardless of party, by his faithful performance of the duties pertaining to the position. He merits your vote. See that he gets it.

GEORGE H. APPLEMAN.
George H. Appleman, nominated by the fusion forces for county commissioner, will be elected, as he deserves to be, and will fill the office with honor and credit to himself and the people who vote for him. His competency is unquestioned and every honest man should support him. With Mr. Appleman in the commissioners' office there will be no quarreling of the people's money.

JOHN I. MARKE.
John I. Marke, the fusion candidate for county commissioner, is thoroughly familiar with the needs of the people and is competent to look after their interests. He will see that the taxpayers are not robbed and that the affairs of the office are administered economically and honestly. He is especially well fitted to fill the position for which he has been named and should receive the votes of all citizens who place efficiency in public office above narrow partisanship.

LEWIS B. FERRY.
The Democrats and Union Republicans made no mistake when they nominated Lewis B. Ferry for poor director. His honesty, intelligence and stable eminence qualify him for that position. He will zealously guard the interests of the people and see that every transaction of the board is straightforward and honorable. He will serve the people honestly and conscientiously. Do not fail to vote for him.

JOHN S. CAMPBELL.
Dr. F. S. Campbell is competent to fill any office within the gift of his fellow citizens. He has been nominated for coroner by the fusion forces and should receive the support of all fair-minded suffragists.

Look Out for Biddle!
An order has been issued from Reynolds headquarters to each Republican commission, in each township, as follows: "Vote Biddle for register and recorder. If you do not, you are liable to be put in the pen."

THE MINERS' INSULT.
At a recent meeting at Six Mile Run Joseph T. Alsip, Republican candidate for the legislature, was called upon to make an address. He responded and spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen—I thank you for your kind invitation. I am glad to meet you. I have a great deal to say to you. I am free to confess that the object of my attention is concentrated on that class of men who go down into the bowels of the earth and dig and delve and sue with coal to keep our vices and keep our homes warm. 'Gentlemen, I am not a speech-maker; but you don't care for speeches—so come with me and take a drink.' Does the genial Joe think votes can be won for drinks? What do the intelligent miners think of it?"

When S. B. Baker became county commissioner the tax rate was 4 mills and $13,000 was on hand. The first year they spent the surplus and borrowed money from the banks and made the rate 5 mills. The last year $14,000 worth of bonds were issued. Let us try another man.

Other Squelched.
At a recent political meeting George W. Oster, Republican candidate for the legislature, was one of the "able speakers." The audience was composed principally of farmers. In order to win the confidence and the votes of his hearers, he said: "My friends, my sympathies have always been with the tillers of the soil. My father was a practical farmer, and so was my grandfather before him. I was myself reared on a farm, and was, so to speak, born between two stalks of corn."

Here the speaker was rudely interrupted by some one in the audience, who exclaimed: "A pumpkin, by jingo!"

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

George Leighty Accused of Killing Bill Chamberlain.

On Wednesday at Kearney George Leighty was arrested on the charge of murder, preferred by Philip Chamberlain, whose brother, Bill Chamberlain, was found dead on the railroad near Langdonale on Tuesday of last week. It was thought at the time that his death was the result of an accident—that he had been run over by a locomotive. No inquest was held, but Special Officer Samuel F. Stiver examined the body and his suspicion under the call of the chairman of the Union Republicans and the Democrats are a tremendous source. No such outpourings of the people have been seen for a generation. The people, regardless of parties, are aroused to dangers that threaten free institutions at the hands of a corrupt machine, formed and operated for plunder, and it is the duty of every Democrat to embrace this opportunity to administer a crushing rebuke to the luge who, after feasting on every plank that grew on the Democratic tree for more than a generation, basely turned his back on his benefactors and now, as the avowed tool and henchman of Quay, is trying to fasten his fangs on the county.

The best and safest leaders of the Republican party are with us this year on state and county issues. They refuse to ratify the conduct of the state and county machine and are earnestly battling for every man on the fusion ticket.

At a rousing union meeting held at New Enterprise Thursday evening of last week the first speech was made by E. M. Pennell, Esq., the well known Republican of Bedford, who, speaking as a representative of the Union Republicans, clearly defined the position of the Union party in this campaign and referred to the evils of Quayism as typified by the late legislature and Governor Stone's administration, in the state and the evils of bosses who sat at the head of the people, in the county. Mr. Pennell plainly demonstrated that the Union men in this movement surrendered none of their principles.

"We are not in conflict with the national Republican administration," he said, "but are in strict accord with President Roosevelt and the principles for which he stands. If in Pennsylvania Roosevelt would be an anti-machine Republican. We are opposed to making Pennsylvania a political trust for one man and his henchmen, we repudiate the administration of Governor Stone and refuse to ratify and approve by our votes the acts of the late Pennsylvania legislature and the selfish tyranny of the local machine that defies the will of the people, attempts to crush, blacken, defame and disgrace every Republican who dares declare himself a man and refuse to wear the machine collar as an in-Rеспубликан. As the Democratic and Union party platforms are identical in their arraignment of Quayism in the state and county all independent thinking men regardless of party affiliations stand together in this campaign for government in state and local affairs for the people, of the people and by the people, as against Quayism and ring rule in state and county."

Address were also made by Judge H. H. Michelberger, Hon. E. S. Doty, Maj. Robert C. McNamara and County Chairman Frank E. Colvin. The speeches were free from personalities, but they were full of patriotism and the friends throughout the county will not be the least to H. H. and his henchmen. Reynolds is mad, because he promised to carry and deliver Bedford county to Quay and Penrose, and now sees he can't do it. Longenecker and Jordan are mad, because Pennell defeated both of them for judge, and again shows his good judgment by being on the winning side. He laughs best who laughs last.

Keep Up the Fight.
Pigs do not squeal until they are hurt. Isn't that so? Yet Reynolds, Longenecker and Jordan are squealing now. What about? Pennell and Little are not candidates for any political office to be voted for on November 4. Yet the would-be leaders of the Republican party devote their time and attention to denouncing these two citizens. Why? Because Pennell and Little are the only two who have the courage to tell the truth to H. H. and his henchmen. Reynolds is mad, because he promised to carry and deliver Bedford county to Quay and Penrose, and now sees he can't do it. Longenecker and Jordan are mad, because Pennell defeated both of them for judge, and again shows his good judgment by being on the winning side. He laughs best who laughs last.

Next Friday Evening's Entertainment.
Following is the programme of the entertainment which will be given in Assembly Hall, Friday evening, November 7, under the auspices of Miss Cleaver:

PART I.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.

PART II.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.

THE DEAD BODY OF SILAS EVANS.
The dead body of Silas Evans, of Broad Top township, was found in the creek at the bridge near the east end of the bridge on Sunday. An inquest was held, the jurors' verdict being that deceased "came to his death by causes unknown." Dr. H. C. McClain, one of the witnesses at the inquest, testified that Evans had a cut on the back of his head and a mark on the right temple—that the blow on the back of the head was the cause of death and that it was made by a stone. Mr. Evans was married.

THE UNION PARTY.

Its Position in This Campaign Clearly Defined by a

PROMINENT REPUBLICAN.

Attorney E. M. Pennell Shows That Independent Republicans Surrender No Principles by Fighting the Machine.

The thinking voters of Bedford county are witnessing an unusual spectacle in this campaign. Joint meetings held under the call of the chairman of the Union Republicans and the Democrats are a tremendous source. No such outpourings of the people have been seen for a generation. The people, regardless of parties, are aroused to dangers that threaten free institutions at the hands of a corrupt machine, formed and operated for plunder, and it is the duty of every Democrat to embrace this opportunity to administer a crushing rebuke to the luge who, after feasting on every plank that grew on the Democratic tree for more than a generation, basely turned his back on his benefactors and now, as the avowed tool and henchman of Quay, is trying to fasten his fangs on the county.

The best and safest leaders of the Republican party are with us this year on state and county issues. They refuse to ratify the conduct of the state and county machine and are earnestly battling for every man on the fusion ticket.

At a rousing union meeting held at New Enterprise Thursday evening of last week the first speech was made by E. M. Pennell, Esq., the well known Republican of Bedford, who, speaking as a representative of the Union Republicans, clearly defined the position of the Union party in this campaign and referred to the evils of Quayism as typified by the late legislature and Governor Stone's administration, in the state and the evils of bosses who sat at the head of the people, in the county. Mr. Pennell plainly demonstrated that the Union men in this movement surrendered none of their principles.

"We are not in conflict with the national Republican administration," he said, "but are in strict accord with President Roosevelt and the principles for which he stands. If in Pennsylvania Roosevelt would be an anti-machine Republican. We are opposed to making Pennsylvania a political trust for one man and his henchmen, we repudiate the administration of Governor Stone and refuse to ratify and approve by our votes the acts of the late Pennsylvania legislature and the selfish tyranny of the local machine that defies the will of the people, attempts to crush, blacken, defame and disgrace every Republican who dares declare himself a man and refuse to wear the machine collar as an in-Rеспубликан. As the Democratic and Union party platforms are identical in their arraignment of Quayism in the state and county all independent thinking men regardless of party affiliations stand together in this campaign for government in state and local affairs for the people, of the people and by the people, as against Quayism and ring rule in state and county."

Address were also made by Judge H. H. Michelberger, Hon. E. S. Doty, Maj. Robert C. McNamara and County Chairman Frank E. Colvin. The speeches were free from personalities, but they were full of patriotism and the friends throughout the county will not be the least to H. H. and his henchmen. Reynolds is mad, because he promised to carry and deliver Bedford county to Quay and Penrose, and now sees he can't do it. Longenecker and Jordan are mad, because Pennell defeated both of them for judge, and again shows his good judgment by being on the winning side. He laughs best who laughs last.

Keep Up the Fight.
Pigs do not squeal until they are hurt. Isn't that so? Yet Reynolds, Longenecker and Jordan are squealing now. What about? Pennell and Little are not candidates for any political office to be voted for on November 4. Yet the would-be leaders of the Republican party devote their time and attention to denouncing these two citizens. Why? Because Pennell and Little are the only two who have the courage to tell the truth to H. H. and his henchmen. Reynolds is mad, because he promised to carry and deliver Bedford county to Quay and Penrose, and now sees he can't do it. Longenecker and Jordan are mad, because Pennell defeated both of them for judge, and again shows his good judgment by being on the winning side. He laughs best who laughs last.

Next Friday Evening's Entertainment.
Following is the programme of the entertainment which will be given in Assembly Hall, Friday evening, November 7, under the auspices of Miss Cleaver:

PART I.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.

PART II.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Piano solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Vocal solo, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.
Recitation, "The Spanish Duet," Miss Cleaver.

RAILROAD BOSH.

John Milner Reynolds Loses His Head and Makes Some Silly Statements.

All good citizens earnestly desire the completion of the defunct Pennsylvania Midland railroad and felt an outraged when the Pennsylvania Railroad company became its purchaser, at the recent sale.

John M. Reynolds, attorney for said railroad company, in his official capacity as chairman of the Republican county committee, announced, at a recent political meeting at Osterburg, that the completion of said railroad depended upon the election of Pennington, as governor—that, if Pennington was elected, the railroad would not be built.

Does any intelligent citizen believe such nonsense?

Railroad corporations are not political or charitable institutions. If the Pennsylvania Railroad company purchased the dead Midland road and its franchises with the intention of completing it, the road will be built—if it merely purchased it in order to keep it from being built, and the Pennington election or defeat will have any force or effect. So Reynolds' threats and Reynolds' promises are as empty as the wind.

It is surprising that he should place such a low estimate upon the intelligence of his fellow-citizens. The truth is that Reynolds feels and knows his ticket is defeated. In his desperation he loses his head and insults the reason and intelligence of every business man in the county.

Reynolds' threat and attempted intimidation is nonsense, and Reynolds knows it, and the people know it, and, moreover, they know John Milner Reynolds. He made a record for himself in Bedford county. It is not—it will not—be forgotten.

Political Barrenness.
Pennsylvania has over one hundred thousand independent Republicans, who have become disgusted and nauseated with such political barrenness as Quay, Penrose, Stone, Durham et al.

Bedford county has over one thousand independent Republicans, who have become disgusted and nauseated with such political barrenness as Reynolds and his henchmen. Will any one deny the truth of these two assertions? If you doubt them, take time to find out the true facts connected with our last contest in the Republican party for the judicial nomination.

Ask why the judicial district was changed, and who caused the change. Ask why the old soldier and trusted official, David W. Prosser, never has been confirmed in his appointment as postmaster, and who held up his confirmation. How can any self-respecting Republican continue to be "gold bricked" by the gang which now has charge of the Quay aggregation in Bedford county?

E. Howard Blackburn, the Quay candidate for prothonotary and clerk of the courts, has been, as is well known, deputy in said office for some twelve years—and still wants to remain in said handsome position, but as chief, another term. He, by the way, in addition to his love for feeding out of the public crib, a lover of poetry, and Tennyson seems just now to be his favorite—at least he is often heard to quote from this English bard, "Men may come, and men may go, but I stay here forever."

Democrats and independent Republicans, rally as you never before rallied, and assist your fellow-citizens in the noble warfare now being made against Bossism and its offspring, Corruption. The next few days must be a period of action. Have your friends, neighbors, an acquaintance, who is yet uncertain in regard to his vote? See him out. Let every good citizen devote a little time in the vote line, and by the way, it will help the majority. Let the victory be decisive. Bedford county must and shall be redeemed. Bossism must not and shall not have here an abiding place. The people must and shall rule—and don't you forget it, Messrs. Reynolds, Longenecker and Jordan.

To your address, Democrats! See every voter, leave none at home.

A Valuable Ally.
Dr. George E. Reed, president of Dickinson college, exploded a bomb in the Quay camp on Saturday by resigning as state librarian. Dr. Reed resigned because he was disgusted with bossism and he will vote and work for Pennington. The doctor has a large following all over the state and he will prove a powerful ally to the Democratic forces. "The time has come," said Dr. Reed, "when political power in Pennsylvania should be returned to the hands of the people. * * * My intention is to vote for Robert E. Pennington for governor of Pennsylvania—not because I am a Democrat, but because I am a Republican, and a Republican who, in the present condition of Pennsylvania politics, believes that he can better serve the party of his life-long devotion—the party of his love and devotion—by voting, this year, for Pennington and Garber, rather than by voting for Judge Pennington and ex-Senator Brown. * * *

For myself, I desire to say that no lack of party regularity shall compel me in this contest, or in any other, to support candidates in the determination of whose nomination I, as a citizen, can have no part, and this for the reason that subservience to political bossism has come to be the recognized sign of party regularity."

Important Question.
Clean politics and honest government are the only questions in next Tuesday's election. On these issues the Democrats and independent Republicans will rally on the side of honesty and the machine Republicans will stand for the rotten legislature of 1901 and the Quay machine.

Which will you choose?

BE UP AND DOING!

The Watchword of Democrats and Independent Republicans.

BOSSISM IN POLITICS

Is as Bad as Slavery in Human Beings—Reynolds Seeks the Seed of His Race—Jury Weed in Our Soil.

Be up and doing! Let every Democrat and independent Republican take these words and the ideas they express as his motto for the next few days.

Our state, our country, is undergoing a trying ordeal. Bossism in politics is as bad as slavery in human beings; its corrupting influence on the body politic is far worse in its consequences. It is a weed of noxious growth and has only been cultivated in our soil within recent years. Reynolds never was and never could be a boss in the Democratic party, which gave him all the political honors to which he can point with pride. Only since his connection with the Republican organization and his selfish and arbitrary assumption of the control of the said party—as the favored spokesman and lieutenant of Arch-Boss Quay—has the evil effects of bossism been felt in our midst.

Examine the Republican county ticket and you will find, on investigation, that not a man thereon, except George W. Oster, was nominated by the free choice of the electors. Every candidate was selected and, under orders, supported by henchmen of Reynolds and his assistants. Interrogate John T. Shaffer, of Osterburg; William Brice, of Bedford; Francis Williams, Esq. of Bedford; W. J. Diehl of Colerain; Douglas James, of Rainburg, and every other Republican who was a candidate for nomination, and they will tell you how and why they were set aside and the present ticket selected. Orders from headquarters, promulgated at a secret meeting held in Bedford, of which notice was given only to the favored ones, virtually nominated the ticket. Only in one instance did the orders fall—John W. Smith, of Hopewell township, was selected as Alsip's running mate, but the former friends of George W. Oster were true to him, and he alone broke the slate, to the confusion and consternation of the bosses. This history, and which cannot be denied or explained away.

If matters continue, as they have existed in the present Republican organization, no elector of that party, no matter how strong may be his claims, no how great his abilities, can hope for political preferment, unless he is willing to sacrifice his manhood, bury his self-respect, bow the knee to Baal, and bend his neck and receive and wear the collar marked Quay or State-Reynolds in County. If you don't believe this, try it; or have some acquaintance try it.

"Will you walk into my parlor, Said the Spider to the Fly." The Ladies' Guild have just completed extensive improvements on Trinity Lutheran parsonage, at a cost of about $100. The work of all the rooms except one which needed no new paper have been repapered. The bath room has been furnished with an entirely new set of fixtures, and besides this some other improvements have been made—all of which adds greatly to the appearance and comfort of the parsonage. The Ladies' Guild deserve much credit for these repairs, and they certainly have the sincere thanks of their pastor.

Improvements Lutheran Parsonage.
The Ladies' Guild have just completed extensive improvements on Trinity Lutheran parsonage, at a cost of about $100. The work of all the rooms except one which needed no new paper have been repapered. The bath room has been furnished with an entirely new set of fixtures, and besides this some other improvements have been made—all of which adds greatly to the appearance and comfort of the parsonage. The Ladies' Guild deserve much credit for these repairs, and they certainly have the sincere thanks of their pastor.

Garber! Garber! Garber!
You'll not be register and recorder. The next three years you'll have to yield the pen and seal to E. Grant Diehl. Vote for Pennington! Now a word for Mr. Doty. All who know Mr. Doty admire and respect him and those who know him intimately have the most affectionate attachment for him. He is a plain, straightforward, upright man, who is clean and honorable, and he is the peer of any character in respect to the private virtues that make up personal character. There is nothing in Edmund Sutherland Doty's life that needs defense or explanation. He is no pretender; there is nothing of the sham about him, nothing of the demagogue, nothing of the hypocrite. He stands foursquare in the simple rectitude of a truthful and spotless life. Voters of Bedford county, you have the golden opportunity to help in smothering the most "infernal machine" that ever cursed and crushed a long-suffering people. Do it by voting the Democratic-Union ticket.

A Vote for Daniel S. Horn for district attorney is a vote thrown away.
"For twelve long years I have been a Republican at heart."—JOHN M. REYNOLDS.

During a portion of that time the Bedford boss was serving as assistant secretary of the interior under a Democratic president. Consistency is a jewel, but it finds no abiding place in the heart of Benegade Reynolds. And this is the man—a blither of blithers—who is calling Republicans, who are too independent to bend the knee to him, the scum of the county. Honest Republicans, be ye men, and don't lose your heads to unscrupulous Reynolds! Osterburg speech ought to be his "Waterloo."

According to Reynolds, it is all right for him to bolt his party, for political purposes, but it is all wrong for Republicans through principle, to reject the machine-made ticket.

The tickets will not be numbered this year. You can vote your sentiments without anybody but yourself knowing how you marked your ballot. Vote for freedom from bossism and for clean politics!

Young Democrats, you who have many years before you, make yourselves useful and active in getting out a full Democratic vote. You will be called to the front as leaders as soon as you show your good works.

IN CUPID'S REALM.

Miss Susanna M. Elchoitz Married to Thomas J. Morehead.

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of the bride, in Bedford township, Wednesday evening, when Miss Susanna Margaret Elchoitz became the wife of Thomas J. Morehead. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. L. Cullen, pastor of the Lutheran church of Bedford. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and vines. The marriage was witnessed by the near relatives of the bride. The young couple left on the 7:40 train for Cumberland, where they will occupy a handsome new house newly furnished and located on Cumberland street. Mrs. Morehead is a daughter of the late Hon. William G. Elchoitz. She is most estimable young woman and is endowed with those qualities of heart and mind which eminently fit her to preside over a home with queenly grace and tact. Mr. Morehead is a member of the hardware firm of Morehead Brothers, one of the largest houses of its kind in Cumberland. He is an exemplary young man and a son of the late William Morehead.

HERBERTS-SPIDEL.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Capt. M. P. Spidel, of Bedford, Tuesday evening, when his daughter, Miss Nettie D. Spidel, was united in marriage to David G. Hersher. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. B. Townsend, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and near friends of the contracting parties. The house was prettily trimmed with cut flowers and potted plants. The bride received many fine presents as an evidence of the esteem in which she is held by her friends. She was formerly one of Bedford's most successful school teachers and has been organist of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school for many years. She was one of the most active and useful members of that congregation. Mrs. Hersher's beautiful traits of character have won the admiration of a host of friends, while wishing her happiness in her new estate, regret her departure from Bedford. Mr. Hersher is train despatcher in the employ of the West Virginia Central railway, and is located at Cumberland. He is a genial, popular young man.

When Daniel S. Horn secured a nomination as a candidate for district attorney on his pledge to many Democrats that he would withdraw in favor of Joseph F. Biddle as a fusion candidate and then violated his pledges and refused to do as he had promised he released every Democrat in this county from voting for him. He made it impossible for honest men to vote for him. Democrats owe it to themselves to make him keep his pledges and promises and to vote for Joseph F. Biddle for district attorney.

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses were recently granted at Cumberland to Charles Fleek and Myrtle M. Gaster, of Eldersburg; Harvey E. Krieger, of Enklyen, and Bertha P. Livingston, of Cypher.

A horse valued at $125 and owned by Luke Kileon, of near Bedford, was killed Saturday night. The dead animal was found lying near the railroad and it is supposed that it had been struck by a train.

The Martinsburg Herald says that a demoted colored man named James McShannon of Bedford was found on the streets at that place last week and taken to the almshouse. His belongings were a lantern and three potatoes.

F. P. Gluchrist has sold his property on East Pitt street to Mrs. Henry C. Heckerman for $3,400. Mr. and Mrs. Heckerman will move into the house on April 1, when Mr. Gluchrist's family will take up their residence in Cumberland.

Rev. B. F. Bauman, of Cressna, has recalled the announcement for services at Pleasant Hill church, Limerstown, and will hold services in the Clear Edge church as follows: Bethel, 8:30 P. M.; Clearville, 7 P. M.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. White, in Saxton, on Wednesday, November 5, at high noon, Miss Emma Mildred White and Dr. Harry R. Brightbill will be united in marriage. Dr. Brightbill is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brightbill, of Bedford.

F. M. Amos, who was injured while superintending the clearing up of a wreck on the Dry Fork railroad in West Virginia some time ago, on Friday fell down the stairs in the Brode building and was painfully injured. On Saturday he went to Philadelphia, where he will receive treatment at the German hospital.

Dr. Hugh B. Barclay, of Bedford, has located in Greensburg. Dr. Barclay was graduated from Hahnemann Hospital college, Philadelphia, in 1901, and for one year resided in a physician in the Hahnemann Hospital. He then took a post graduate course at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore. The doctor is a full member of the American Association of Physicians. He is an enthusiastic disciple of Aesculapius, an earnest, painstaking practitioner and will no doubt meet with success.

Deaths.
William J. Kerr, late of Harrison township, deceased, gave all of his real estate and personal property to his wife, Mrs. Anna Maria Kerr. After her death the property is to be divided among the children. Henry C. Kerr is appointed executor.

Minor Killed.
John Lonsdale, a miner of Plymouth, was killed at Juddley on Wednesday of last week by a large rock falling on him. He was of English descent and aged 24 years. His wife and two children survive him.

MENTIONED IN BRIEF.

Town Talk and Neighborhood Notes.

MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST

Gleaned From Various Sources—Little Potatoes Picked Up by Vigilant Men.

Miss Minnie Wertz is ill. Read Ad Hoffman's ad. on the second page. Cal Barnett shot a wild turkey on Tuesday. Remember the election—Tuesday, November 4.

The Richardson Art Embroidery club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. A. Barnett to-morrow afternoon. On Tuesday Alvie E. Miller and Minnie E. Delaney, of Bedford township, were united in marriage by Squire J. R. Ritchey.

The Bedford Athletic association will hold an important meeting in Belden Hall to-night at 7:30. If you are a member be sure to attend. John Nicholas Davis killed his first turkey of the season on Wednesday. Mr. Davis knows where to shoot these fowls. If you doubt it, ask him.

Mrs. Mary College, charged with assault and battery, was brought to Bedford on Wednesday by Constable Jenkins, of Liberty township, and lodged in jail. Farmers' institutes will be held in Bedford county this year as follows: Bedford, December 5 and 6; Schellburg, December 2 and 3; Mann's Choice, December 10.

Dr. R. L. Smith, of Schellburg, who for the past month has been doing post graduate work at the Polytechnic hospital in Philadelphia, will return home next Monday. On Tuesday Isaac Flegle, of East St. Clair township, who was arrested on the charge of larceny last week, was given a hearing before Squire Ritchey and dismissed for want of evidence.

Dr. A. B. Bauman, a noted physician of Chicago, died in a city last week of pneumonia. Rev. B. F. Bauman, of Cressna, is a cousin and attended the funeral services at Millersville, Pa., on Friday.

Marriage licenses were recently granted at Cumberland to Charles Fleek and Myrtle M. Gaster, of Eldersburg; Harvey E. Krieger, of Enklyen, and Bertha P. Livingston, of Cypher.

A horse valued at $125 and owned by Luke Kileon, of near Bedford, was killed Saturday night. The dead animal was found lying near the railroad and it is supposed that it had been struck by a train.

The Martinsburg Herald says that a demoted colored man named James McShannon of Bedford was found on the streets at that place last week and taken to the almshouse. His belongings were a lantern and three potatoes.

F. P. Gluchrist has sold his property on East Pitt street to Mrs. Henry C. Heckerman for $3,400. Mr. and Mrs. Heckerman will move into the house on April 1, when Mr. Gluchrist's family will take up their residence in Cumberland.

Rev. B. F. Bauman, of Cressna, has recalled the announcement for services at Pleasant Hill church, Limerstown, and will hold services in the Clear Edge church as follows: Bethel, 8:30 P. M.; Clearville, 7 P. M.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. White, in Saxton, on Wednesday, November 5, at high noon, Miss Emma Mildred White and Dr. Harry R. Brightbill will be united in marriage. Dr. Brightbill is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brightbill, of Bedford.

J Gazette.
ished In 1805.
is the leading newspaper of Bedford county and its circulation is far ahead of any of its contemporaries. As an advertising medium it is one of the best in this part of the state.
THE BEDFORD GAZETTE IS A MODEL AMONG COUNTY NEWSPAPERS.—New York World.
Regular subscription price per year... $3.00
If paid in advance... $2.50
All communications should be addressed to THE GAZETTE PUBLISHING CO., BEDFORD, PA.
Friday Morning, Oct. 31, 1902.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Governor,
ROBERT E. PATTISON,
of Philadelphia.
For Lieutenant Governor,
GEORGE W. GUTHRIE,
of Pittsburgh.
For Secretary of Internal Affairs,
JAMES NOLAN,
of Reading.

Democratic County Ticket.

For Congressman,
ROBERT E. CRESSWELL, of Johnstown.
For State Senator,
ALEXANDER B. GROW, of Somerset.
For Legislators,
EDMUND S. DOTT, of Bedford.
CAPT. E. L. RICHLEBERGER, of Saxton.
For Prothonotary,
GEORGE W. DERRICK, of Everett.
For Sheriff,
WYLLISTER RITCHIE, of East Providence Township.
For Treasurer,
JOHN T. MILLER, of Man's Choice.
For Register and Recorder,
H. GRANT DASH, of Colerain Township.
For District Attorney,
JOSEPH P. BIDDLE, of Bedford.
For County Commissioners,
JOHN L. MARKS, of Southampton Township.
GEORGE H. APPELMAN, of Bloomfield Township.
For Director of the Poor,
LEWIS B. FERRY, of South Woodbury Township.
For County Auditors,
E. A. HERSHBERGER, of Bedford Township.
J. E. BLACKBURN, of Napier Township.
For Coroner,
DR. F. S. CAMPBELL, of Hopewell.

DO YOUR DUTY.

The citizens of Bedford county never had a better chance to strike an effectual blow against bossism than at present. The coalition of the independent Republicans and Democrats composes an invincible army if every member of each organization does his duty. The ticket selected by the fusionists appeals to all right-thinking people. Each candidate is worthy the vote of all honest suffragists regardless of party affiliations. Their fitness and ability cannot be questioned and no voter who is in favor of purity in politics and honesty in public affairs can find a valid reason for not supporting every Democratic-Republican nominee. They are the free choice of the people who have the welfare of the county at heart and not the favorites of a political boss, who is so autocratic and so selfish that he will not even permit the party he rules to select its ticket. The time has come to rebuke such tyranny and every fair-minded, liberty-loving citizen of Old Mother Bedford should do his utmost to rescue the county from the clutches of the machine.

HELP REDEEM THE STATE.

The issue in the campaign this year is the redemption of the state from the political pirates who have been plundering her with such brazen honesty. In this rescue work the honest Republicans have joined hands with the Democrats and the union of these forces augurs well for the success of the reform movement. Robert E. Pattison, George W. Guthrie and James Nolan, the state candidates, have made a gallant fight. Their tour through Pennsylvania was one continued ovation. Everywhere they went great crowds greeted them and their speeches were applauded to the echo. The campaign of this year has eclipsed all former ones and shows that the people realize the importance of the issue at stake and are in earnest in their efforts to correct the existing evils. In no previous campaign have so many prominent and influential Republican papers and statesmen espoused the cause championed by the candidates who are pledged to check the carnival of corruption at the capital city. The signs of the times have never before so strongly indicated the success of those who are fighting for reform and it behooves every honest Democrat to do his part to redeem the state. The independent Republicans throughout the commonwealth are sincere in their opposition to the machine-made ticket and are working hard to defeat it. Let there be no lagging among the Democrats in this crisis. Every member of the party should do his full duty, cheerfully and courageously. We should take advantage of this splendid opportunity to put such clean, competent and trustworthy men as Pattison, Guthrie and Nolan on guard at Harrisburg and elect our splendid county ticket. Let every friend of good government in the county go to the polls next Tuesday and put himself on record as a foe to corruption in public office.

REBUEKED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Quay, the man who chose Pennypacker as his personal preference for governor of Pennsylvania, never balks at anything else when trying to accomplish his purpose. He has gone to such extremes that the president has been compelled to rebuke him and call a halt on his proceedings. The Pennsylvania post-bell recently sent out circulars calling on the federal officials for campaign contributions to help Cousin Sam. The civil service commission called the president's attention to this violation of the law, which clearly prohibits senators, representatives, or any officer or employee of any department of the government, from directly or indirectly soliciting or receiving political contributions from federal employees. One provision of the law is as follows:

"That no officer, clerk or other person in the service of the United States shall, directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any other officer, clerk or person in the service of the United States, or to any senator or member of the house of representatives or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object whatever."

In accordance with this provision, President Roosevelt, a few days ago, issued the following notification and warning:

"I hereby call the attention of all officers and employees in the federal service to the foregoing opinion and warn them that the provisions of law as therein construed are to be by them obeyed and enforced. Any official in the federal service may without jeopardy to his official standing contribute or not, exactly as he pleases, provided he obeys the sections of the civil service act above referred to."

Surely the suffragists of the state cannot afford to endorse the unlawful acts of Quay by voting for his candidate and cousin, Pennypacker, who thinks the Pennsylvania boss is greater than Henry Clay or Daniel Webster.

Although the president's action was not taken in time to prevent the violation of the civil service law, Quay's offense being committed in August, it shows how reckless the Beaver politician is. Many look upon Roosevelt's proclamation as a grand stand play and think he should have acted in time to prevent the robbery instead of waiting until the victims of Quay's cupidity had been deced and then issuing a polite order notifying Quay that the law had been violated.

It is also the consensus of opinion that Quay should have been summarily punished, as any other violator of the law is. He should have been promptly arrested and made to pay the penalty of his crime. This was not done, says an exchange, because "his crime was committed in behalf of the Republican party and Roosevelt only spoke at the eleventh hour because he imagined some idiots would say what a grand party we have and how zealously our president guards the laws."

DEMOCRATS, do your duty!

If you vote for Pennypacker you will endorse Quayism with all its evils.

ALL patriots who place principle above partisanship will be found working for the Democratic-Union ticket next Tuesday.

Let there be no stay-at-home votes this year. If the Democratic and Union parties do their whole duty they will win a great victory.

Let every Democrat and honest Republican vote as early as possible on Tuesday and then see that their neighbors go to the polls and cast their ballots against bossism.

The obligations of a citizen to his country, or his state, or his country, are greater than his obligations to a political party. In the battle for good government which will be decided next Tuesday the voter should have no trouble to decide how he ought to cast his ballot. By voting for one set of candidates he will ignore the corruption that exists at the capital city and give the gang a new lease of power. By casting his ballot for another ticket he will denounce the machine and help to place honest men in office who will put a stop to the plundering. The course the citizen of the commonwealth who is in favor of honesty and economy in public affairs ought to follow is so clearly defined that no one should go astray.

Ireland's Population Decreasing.

The recent census of Ireland shows a marked decrease in its population, which has been largely attributed to the famine throughout the island, causing the death of thousands of people and forcing many others to emigrate. This brings to mind quite forcibly the absolute necessity of having plenty of good food if we would prolong life, but after all it is not a question of the amount eaten that makes the people strong and healthy, but the way it is digested. Dyspeptic people cannot enjoy their meals, and consequently always feel depressed, irritable and nervous. They should try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at once. It is a specific remedy for flatulency, belching, indigestion, dyspepsia and nervousness, and is backed by a record of fifty years of cures.

Pennypacker and his warning party have had hard times through the northwestern. The voters everywhere seem to have sized up the short-sighted Quay apologist.

With active workers in every school district, Chairman Cressy hopes to get out every Democratic vote. Let a hand, in the interest of clean politics and honest government.

The publication of Pattison's remarkable labor record, his official words and acts, was a knock-out blow from which the machine literary bureau has not recovered.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Crimmet, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va.

Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by all druggists.

Quay, the man who chose Pennypacker as his personal preference for governor of Pennsylvania, never balks at anything else when trying to accomplish his purpose. He has gone to such extremes that the president has been compelled to rebuke him and call a halt on his proceedings. The Pennsylvania post-bell recently sent out circulars calling on the federal officials for campaign contributions to help Cousin Sam. The civil service commission called the president's attention to this violation of the law, which clearly prohibits senators, representatives, or any officer or employee of any department of the government, from directly or indirectly soliciting or receiving political contributions from federal employees. One provision of the law is as follows:

"That no officer, clerk or other person in the service of the United States shall, directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any other officer, clerk or person in the service of the United States, or to any senator or member of the house of representatives or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object whatever."

In accordance with this provision, President Roosevelt, a few days ago, issued the following notification and warning:

"I hereby call the attention of all officers and employees in the federal service to the foregoing opinion and warn them that the provisions of law as therein construed are to be by them obeyed and enforced. Any official in the federal service may without jeopardy to his official standing contribute or not, exactly as he pleases, provided he obeys the sections of the civil service act above referred to."

Surely the suffragists of the state cannot afford to endorse the unlawful acts of Quay by voting for his candidate and cousin, Pennypacker, who thinks the Pennsylvania boss is greater than Henry Clay or Daniel Webster.

BROADBIRM'S BUDGET
Number One Thousand Three Hundred and Twenty-Seven.
CAPITAL AND LABOR

Fairly Represented at a Meeting in New York—Misses Hely and Mitchell, the Popular President of Their Union.

Special Correspondence of THE GAZETTE.

New York, October 23.—To settle the strike if possible in New York city, a meeting was called Saturday night for all classes of labor to see if the strike could not be ended. It was one of the fairest and clearest representatives of labor and capital that has ever been held in this city. Every man, high and low, had his say, without any interruption. A leader among the great coal operators opened the business of the night; it was given in such a way that there was no misunderstanding it. It was a story that every laboring man might lay to his heart, a story which no operator could forget. It told of a poor boy who came to New York city to seek his fortune, nearly fifty years ago; he had played around the railroad yards till he almost knew all the laboring men. It wasn't long before he was induced to take the position of assistant locomotive fireman. He worked fairly; he was always working to better his situation and he finally reached the position of engineer. He was still looking forward, nothing was too trivial for him to reach and eventually he was promoted to conduct. The executive board noticed his zeal in behalf of the company's work, and one day, to his surprise, he was elected to the position of chief director of the road and all it contained; and that his zeal might not lead him to mistakes, they presented him with a purse of forty thousand dollars, that he might not be impeded in his work for want of cash, and to-day he stands at the head of all the company's works, the highest possible position that the company could give; that fortunate gentleman now stands before you. What better story could have been told of an immigrant miner's life. When a boy comes to New York with no friends or money it seems as though there was little or no chance for his success. But he was a boy ready to fight the battle of life, which at that time was one fierce struggle for supremacy. Every step he took was an advance of honest endeavor; he asked nobody to do his work for him, all he wanted was a fair chance to labor, and of that success. He was leaving God and his fellow men to be the judges.

"It is not true, my fellow workmen, that any man laboring with his heart and brain could always succeed in the phenomenal manner that I have done, but constantly changes are turning up which would advance any man's fortune if he was able to take advantage of the opportunity."

He invited any of the audience to speak out and tell their fellow workmen of their own experiences. One said he only received $1 a week, which was barely enough to keep body and soul together, and he had been with the company nearly forty years. He was sick several years ago and was entirely unable to work, but during his sickness the company paid him his salary every week, never deducting a dollar for a whole year, so that he felt very grateful and would not leave them. What can resist an appeal like this? It has been said time and again that corporations have neither soul nor body. The longer hours employed by railroad men and those who work with express companies are very laborious and exacting, so that the men did not complain of the pay so much as the long hours of labor.

Here was one man who spoke up who had hardly seen the face of his younger children. He left his home at 5 o'clock in the morning, labored all through the day and worked continuously until 10.30 in the night. These long hours prevented anything like social enjoyment at home. He had been with the company which he was employed with for twenty-five years, and while the wages were not high they were sure, and every man felt that he was to receive his money as soon as it was earned.

The meeting Saturday night was very large and was conducted fairly and after the talking was finished the audience was invited to partake of refreshments, which consisted of coffee and ham sandwiches in abundance, and the wind-up was orderly if not entirely satisfactory. So far there has been little or no advancement in favor of the operators or the strikers.

Mitchell is still in command, his power is not yet shaken, the body and file still rely on his judgment. The manner in which they greeted him Saturday night leaves no thought as to that. They crowded around him, eager to shake his hand; recognized him as the pilot who had guided them safely through the storm.

A careful examination of the labor associations throughout the city leaves little hope of changing, although you hear it currently recited that 70,000 have been influenced to go to work and that 70,000 places are ready for them. There is, however, no confirmation of these reports.

James Younger, one of the noted Younger brothers, compatriots of Jesse James, committed suicide the other day. Younger was recently paroled from the Stillwater penitentiary, where he and his brother were serving life sentences for robbing the Northfield bank. Younger was 54 years old. One's bureau in his room was found a long envelope on which was written, "To all that is good and true I love and bid farewell." On the other side he had written, "Old lassie, good-bye; all relatives just stay away from me. No crocodile tears are wanted; porters, be my friends; burn me up." The envelope contained letters to a woman with whom he had been acquainted, who had believed in his reform and affiliated with him in his disgrace. During a term of his parole attempts were made to get him pardoned, but in vain. He had assisted in the murder of many men and his pardon was never secured.

He suffered much from wounds received while robbing banks and railroads and he was in continual torture, and so, tired of life, the assassin gave the only thing he had to give—a bullet through his brain.

It is somewhat strange that in the midst of toll and turmoil that the change of our amusements are the most expensive part of our living, and it is refreshing to know that the art of self-defense leads all the others. A good seat at the Italian opera will cost you $5 and you can reach from that to $80, but recollect when you do that you are paying for the brightest and best of professional talent that the world affords. But when engaging in the test of Marquis of Queensbury sports $25 is considered a very reasonable price, where $50 or $100 is the price for a private box.

The other night a contest between the Westchester Kittens and Bully Headed Champions, the champion, was for the championship of Paddy's four corners and, after desperate combat for the feather weight, was one-half for the school of the Bull Head and the other half were for drinks for the crowd. In a first class match, with heavy weights, $100 is not considered a very great stake, while side wagers will sometimes amount to almost a million of dollars. Jeffries, the present champion, wouldn't look at a $5,000 stake and, being of a shrewd turn, has laid by for a frosty day $200,000 Stephen James, of Australia, who has fought his way up from a welter weight to the championship of the world, has a comfortable fortune; he has now retired from the prize ring and with one more battle he thinks can be enriched his job with $50,000 more. This is an age of reform and the champion is bound to go in with the reformers.

We hail his conservatism and wish him joy and give him his parting, and old-time Tom Skyles, boast: "May the best man win." BROADENING.

His Life to Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all at once," wrote Alfred Lee, of Walling, Tex., "broughtness and a lame back had made life a burden. I could not eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, nervous people everywhere. Only $5 a bottle. J. R. Irvine & Co's drug store.

TRUTH AND FALSEHOOD

In Politics and Other Affairs—The Handwriting Is on the Wall.

"Complete truthfulness is one of the rarest of virtues." Judging from the conduct of many who are conspicuous in human affairs, they prefer the truth where it answers their own purposes best, and falsehood where it does not.

Political leaders are often compared to great military monarchs. Their wisdom, administrative ability, and, alas, of that peculiar diabolical genius which does not truth, or untruth, in such measure and in such guise as in their judgment is most likely to compass contemplated aims. A false report, if believed during a campaign, is of great service to a political party, appears to be a political maxim ascribed to the "machine" in Pennsylvania. The virus is spread throughout the body politic. In party politics "forgery" pretense to use the truth disguised to the gross fiction." Debates on bimetallic questions and on manufacturing, farming and industrial interests furnish ample material for illustration. Recent history, especially of siege, battle and military maneuvers, is rarely to be depended upon. The history of our late civil war in nearest approximation to complete truthfulness is not likely to be written within the next hundred years. There are too many individual and family reputations at stake to admit free and full utterances of all the facts. In war and in peace some men seek through published falsehood to reach their ends as architects in constructing arches, support them with circular props and pieces of timber until they are closed and support themselves; then the props are thrown away.

What is true of military, naval and political lying is also true of professional, fiscal and business falsehood. Our political leaders, in many and portentous instances, have infused the spirit and practice of falsehood into state and national legislatures, defiled the administration of justice, partitioned the territory of the republic among themselves, built up wealthy monopolies, condemned thriving industries to decay and death, seized arbitrary and irresponsible power, exemplified the evils of luxury and of wealth illegitimately acquired, caused "speculative fevers and crises of maddening and ruinous rain."

Of the fibbing, conventional falsehoods, and while lies disgusting and violating social intercourse and common commercial transactions, it is enough to say that they are in jarring discord with the purity and beauty, the nobility and healthfulness of pure Christianity. Political lies impair private and public confidence, undermine faith in veracity and benevolence of public men, wither prudent frugality and all the homely virtues, incite to wasteful extravagance and vitiate the public conscience while they harden the public heart and spread the deadly miasma of moral rottenness wherever they go. In profound peace, under the government of wise, just and equal laws, and in relations which demand and imply mutual confidence and benevolence, every man ought to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, with his neighbor. Not to do so, but to do the opposite, is a crime against God and against society. The strife for leadership in recent years, with its attendant corruptions, together with the betrayal of great public interests by men who have used their premeditated and power for selfish purposes, has broken the confidence of the masses. They "are at sea" between the great political parties. They know the methods of the caucus and the convention and distrust the leaders, so that politics has become largely the strife of demagogues and their "beaters" for public patronage. Men are in politics for the money there is in it and the big plums go to the men who have the largest bank accounts. The people are growing tired of this state of affairs and are looking for great servants whose patriotism is unquestioned and whose lives will be invested in the service of pure government, based upon equity and justice to all classes. The handwriting is on the wall; the selfish politician is doomed, and the unrest of the masses will speak in thundering tones on November 4th.

Saxton, Pa.

ANY HOSPITAL or orphan asylum, children's home or institution maintained by charitable support, will be presented with a generous amount of Longmair's Martinez Pains whenever they paint. This offer has been in force for twenty-seven years. Over 30,000 houses of various sizes are painted every year at lowest cost; because about a gallon of oil must be added to each gallon of our paint before using. Superior durability makes the price worth many years.

Always hold your insurance guarantee, Longmair & Martinez.

Sole Agents
J. P. SCHULTZ, Schellsburg,
D. F. HANLON, Martinsburg.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by all druggists.

THE OLD RELIABLE
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

International S. S. Lesson for November 2.
CITIES OF REFUGE—Joshua 20: 1-9.
Read Psalm 46.

Golden Text—"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."—Psalm 46:1.

The Lord spoke unto Joshua, saying: "Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint for yourselves the cities of refuge, where I have spoken unto you by the hand of Moses: that whosoever may slay the manslayer that killeth any person unawares without knowledge and they shall be unto you for a refuge from the avenger of the blood."

And he shall flee unto one of those cities and he shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and speak in the ears of the elders of that city his words; and they shall take him into the city unto them and give him a place, that he may dwell among them. And if the avenger of the blood should pursue after him, then shall they not deliver the manslayer up to his hand; because without knowledge did he smite his neighbor, and he was not an enemy to him in time past. And he shall dwell in that city until he shall have stood before the congregation for judgment; and until the death of the high priest that may be in those days. Then shall the manslayer return and come unto his own house, unto the city whence he hath fled."

And they appointed Kadesh, in Gilead, in the mountain of Naphtali, and Shechem, in the mountain of Ephraim, and Kiryat-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. And on the other side of the Jordan by Jerico eastward they appointed Bezer, in the wilderness, in the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth, in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan, in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

These were the cities assigned for all the children of Israel and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever might slay a man unawares, and that he should not die by the hand of the avenger of the blood, until he should have stood before the congregation.

This refuge is the eternal God, and here beneath, the everlasting arms. Happy art thou, O Israel! who is like unto thee, O people, saved by the Lord, the Shield of thy help, and the Sword of thy excellency! Who is like unto the Lord our God who dwells on high who humbles Himself to regard the things upon earth.

God is our protection and strength, a help in distresses, very readily found. Therefore will we not fear, even when the earth is transformed and when mountains are moved into the heart of the sea. The Lord of hosts is with us, a defense unto us is the God of Jacob. Happy is the man who trusts in Him!

When God made promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no greater, He swore by Himself. By these two unchangeable things, the promise and its confirmation by His oath, we have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the Hope set before us and which Hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, which enters into that within the veil; whither the Forerunner for us entered, even Jesus, made an High Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

For Christ has entered into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. Once has He appeared in the world to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. He was once offered to bear the sins of many. And unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

Out of Death's Jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a severe stomach and liver trouble, I had suffered with for years," writes P. M. Saxe, Durham, N. C. "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave me health." Best pills on earth, and only 25c at J. R. Irvine & Co's drug store.

Just a word to our friends, the public.

We want you to know that

In our Hardware Store, East Pitt Street,

May be found just what you need—

Little, every-day wants supplied here.

Elegant line of Stores,

Robes and everything that should be kept in an up-to-date Hardware store.

J. W. MILLER.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by all druggists.

STORY NEWS.

METROPOLITAN
Clothing and Shoe House.

At last our stock is now all in, and we are glad to say that our customers seem to appreciate the goods placed before them. We will tell you in as few words as we possibly can in order not to detain you reading our ads all day, as WE want part of the day to sell you your reasonable wearing apparel. This is what we have to offer you this month:

Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Overcoats.

All the newest makes and patterns. The Men's Suits begin in price at $4.90, the Boys' Suits, sizes from 14 to 20 years of age, begin in price at $3.90, the Children's Suits begin in price at $1.25.

So it is with our Overcoats, too. Of course you can go as high on a Suit or Overcoat as $20. The more you pay the better goods you get, and above all, we guarantee you a saving of at least from 15 to 30 per cent. Compare our goods and prices with others and you'll soon see the saving. But clothing alone is not the only thing we can save you money on; there are lots of other goods we sell at Money Saving Prices. Here are a few of them:

Hats, Caps, Underwear, Gloves, Hosiery, Trunks, Satchels,

And, in fact, anything that Man or Boy wears at less than what other stores want. A few prices to convince you of our Bargains. Men's heavy fleeced underwear at 39c, the usual price is 50c. Boys' best fleeced underwear at 25c, the usual price is 40c. A lot of Women's and Children's underwear for half what other stores ask for them.

A few words about Boots and Shoes.

We'd rather sell 10 pairs of shoes at 25c a pair profit than one pair at 50c profit. That's why, I suppose, we sell so many shoes. No matter what you want in footwear—we have it, all you need to do is to ask for it. The price—we guarantee it to be the lowest or we don't want your money. That's fair enough, is it not?

We mustn't forget to tell you about our Ladies' Garments. Do you know that the MONTY CARLO Box Coat is all the go now—do you know that we sell all the latest styles in Ladies' Wearing Apparel, such as Jackets, Raglans, Plush and Cloth Caps, and a large line of Girls' and Children's Cloaks? Did you ever buy of us in that line? If not, why not? Suppose you didn't know we kept them. Now you DO know, so honor us with your visit and look over our stock. We know that once you see the garments WE sell you will buy from us. Perhaps you think the price too high. No, not a bit of it. Here are a few samples:

Ladies' 27 inch Jackets at $4.90, make of all wool Melton, come in Black, Blue and Tan, 30-inch Plush Capes, $3.90, instead of $6; Children's Reefers as low as $1.25. Of course lots at higher prices, too, but OUR prices are always lower than the other stores. All we ask of you is a few minutes of your time. Grant us that, and we will do our best to please you. Come and see us. We are sure to please you.

METROPOLITAN
Clothing and Shoe House,
OPPENHEIMER BUILDING, BEDFORD, PA.
ABE HOFFMAN, Proprietor.

Every Man

Who has visited our store this Fall has been loud in his praise of our Autumn selections of Suits, Top Coats, Hats and Hosiery. We spent more time than ever in comparing the values of different makes as well as styles and we believe that no other collection in this part of the country can show the many good points that ours can.

Our prices range from $4 to $20 for both Suits and Top Coats, but we have a greater assortment than ever in the history of our business, at the following prices:

$8, 10, 12 and 15.

Every correct fabric and every correct shape is included in these lots.

Boys' Clothing.

For the little fellows 8 to 16 years old, we have the daintiest and handsomest suits that you can imagine and our prices mean a saving of money to you in every case. For the older boys, 7 to 16 years, we have made a special point of durability as well as style and good fitting qualities. We want you to see the very large collection which we have marked at

$2, 3 and 4.

Each suit is worth from $1.00 to $1.50 more.

You will find in our store everything you may want in the way of Hosiery and Hats and each article at the lowest possible price.

M. LIPPEL,
The Leading Clothier,
BEDFORD, PA.

THE NEW YORK WORLD
Three-a-Week Edition.

Read wherever the English Language is Spoken.

events of importance, no matter where they happen, are reported accurately and promptly.

The subscriber, for only one dollar a year, gets three papers every week and more news and general reading than most great dailies can furnish at five or six times the price.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. It never allows to affect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political campaigns.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best material for fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

Arrived this week.
A full line of fall wearing from the cheapest to the best, due selection; also the line of the latest weaves of Dress Goods. Our line of Dry Goods was never so complete and prices so low for quality. We have received at our service of Men's, Youth and Children's Suits and prices very low for quality. Come and take a look and be convinced that we can save you in every thing you buy here. Now is the time for choice of Men's, Youth and Children's Suits. We have those that will please the parents and children also. Our fall line is complete in every respect. Heavy shoes of all kinds; also the shoes for one and all. We carry a full line of Men's working clothes of all kinds, the best that money can buy. Come and see our line of Oil Cloths and Carpets. Fresh Groceries almost every day.

Bring your Butter and Eggs.
STRAUB'S
BEDFORD, PA.

Register's Notice.
Notice is hereby given that the following Administration, Executor and Guardian accounts have been filed in the Register's office of Bedford county, have been examined and will be presented to the Orphans' Court of said county, at the Court House in Bedford, on Wednesday, November 19, 1902, for confirmation:

1. The first account of George F. Guyer, administrator of the estate of Susan R. Guyer, late of Bedford township, Bedford county, Pa., deceased.

2. The first and final account of H. H. Fisher, administrator and trustee to sell the real estate of Samuel Davis, late of Hopewell township, Bedford county, Pa., deceased, for the payment of debts.

3. The first account of account of Jason Blackburn, administrator of Nathan H. Blackburn, late of Napier township, Bedford county, Pa., deceased.

<

NEWSPAPER ARCHIV

© **®

by all druggists.

ett, Pa. For sale by all dealers

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

box. 25.

Stomach, Liver and Kidney diseases.

Ne

WSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPER ARCHIV

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

